

Matthew Hahn

+44 [0] 7816 334 897 HAHN@HOTMAIL.CO.UK

International theatre director, playwright, senior lecturer & theatre for development facilitator, post-graduate with experience of creating, coordinating and implementing theatre projects in the United Kingdom, the United States, East & Southern Africa. Also experienced in co-creating international theatre projects focusing on developing and enabling young people, social cohesion, peace-making and conflict resolution in the Global South & North.

Artistic director of the Folkestone Performing Arts Company [FPAC], an artist-led international theatre ensemble creating vibrant, relevant and compelling theatre through the celebration of local stories.

Last November, he worked in Nairobi with Kenyan National Waste Pickers Welfare Association to co-create a piece of Legislative Theatre presented to delegates at the United Nation's Environmental Assembly as part of the creation of the Global Plastics Treaty to End Plastic Pollution. Early in 2024, he will at the SHAPE Theatre to direct Amadeus. In May, he will be working at the Tower Theatre with FPAC and refugees currently housed at Napier Barracks in a series of drama workshops & performances.

Education

Goldsmiths College – London, England, MA in Theatre Directing

Indiana University – Bloomington, Indiana, BA in Journalism & Political Science

Selected Directing Experience

2023	One of the Finest Vistas...	FPAC	Folkestone, UK
2022	Like Birds	Projekt Europa, Marlowe Theatre	Canterbury, UK
2022	Art*	SHAPE THEATRE	Brussels, Belgium
2021	Wasted Words	The Festival of Fleeting Words	Online / International
2020	Banana	New Writing/New Normal Festival	Online / International
2020	The Rivonia Trial Tribunal Play	Radio Play	[R & D]
2020	Sanctuary	WriteNow Berlin Festival	Online / International
2020	Catastrophe [under Lockdown]	Peacock Festival of Civil Liberties	Online / International
2020	imPEACHable	South by South East Festival, Gulbenkian Theatre	Canterbury, UK
2019	She Says	Folkestone 48 Play Festival	Folkestone, UK
2016	Gidion's Knot	Woman & War Festival, So & So Art Club	London, UK
2014	The Robben Island Shakespeare	Michael Oak School	Cape Town, South Africa
2014	A Day in the Life (Forum Theatre)	Houses of Parliament	London, UK
2013	Pimlico	Hoxton Hall	London, UK
2012	Gender Equality in the UK (Forum Theatre)	Committed Artists	Durban, South Africa
2011	Living with HIV in the UK	Tikondane Primary School	Lilongwe, Malawi
2008	SubUrbia	Southwark Theatre	London, UK
2004 – 06	subVERSE	Theatre 503	London, UK
2004	Who Wants to be the Disco King?	LOST Theatre Company	Edinburgh, Scotland

* winner outstanding director & outstanding play, Tournament of Plays Award

Recent HE Employment

St. Mary's University – Senior Lecturer, Drama Programme – 2013 – 2018.

St. Mary's University – Lecturer, Drama – 2008 – 2013.

Selected Achievements

Trustee – Most Mira, arts focused charity that builds bridges between divided communities in Bosnia.

Playwright, *The Robben Island Shakespeare: Researched, designed and implemented a play that examines leadership under extreme conditions that faced leaders of the anti-Apartheid movement in South Africa, through primary interviews and selected text from 'The Complete Works of William Shakespeare'.

Common Air Theatre Company: Lead a participatory theatre company that produces socially aware productions working within a community to advocate for social change and human rights. Facilitate interactive theatre workshops and direct verbatim theatre pieces on gender and human rights as well as conflict resolution and peace negotiation through behaviour change strategies and strengthening communication skills.

subVERSE: Co-ordinated, directed, casted and curated over 300 pieces of new writing of a contemporary and political nature over a three-year theatre residency at theatre503. This led to high profile performances in theatres in London and Edinburgh as well as within the activist movement.

Utopia Theatre Creative Hub, Sheffield, UK - Facilitator of online workshop to adapt Forum Theatre practice to an online platform.

MRC-NRF Tupumue UK / Kenya - Newton Fund's UK-Kenya Joint Partnership on Non-Communicable Diseases. Co-investigator as a legislative theatre for advocacy expert.

MRC / AHRC Global Public Health Bid with the Stockholm Environment Institute Environment Department, University of York. Co-investigator as a forum theatre for advocacy expert.

Akoma Asa Arts Performing Arts Academy, London: Online workshops for young people examining racism & empowerment through broadcast journalism and forum theatre workshops.

Commedia dell' Arte, Folkestone: Arts Council funded research and development project to train professional and refugee theatre makers in the art of Commedia dell' Arte.

MRC / AHRC Global Public Health Bid with the Stockholm Environment Institute Environment Department, University of York: Co-investigator as a forum theatre for advocacy expert.

Ethical Leadership Workshop: Design and lead workshops that examine the current leadership situation on a personal, local & national level targeted at young people. The young people deliver a performance of Shakespeare, monologues from the former political prisoners' interviews as well as new pieces of creative writing.

Selected Training

Viewpoints Training:

Theatre Foundry, London, UK.

SITI Company, New York City.

Anne Bogart, Dublin, Ireland.

Forum Theatre / Joker Training Programme:

Cardboard Citizens Theatre Company.

For more information about my work, please visit:

www.MatthewHahn.org.uk